Information on the KSMU digital resources

The list of remote resources for distance learning

The university's library provides access to a variety of digital informational and educational resources.

Access to the digital resources is possible on the university website:
https://kurskmed.com/

➢ In the section "Library"

➢ In the user account (access with username and password on the upper right of the main page of the website).

<h1 style="text-align:center">The digital library includes:</h1>

1. University's own recourses:

The digital library of Kursk State Medical University "Medicus" (certificate of the state registration no. 2015620262 dated 11.02.2015) includes digital catalogues and full-text databases. The digital library "Medicus" contains textbooks, teaching materials on the subjects studied; dissertations and abstracts of dissertations that were defended at KSMU; articles from periodicals published by the University employees; graduation thesis and other documents.

To access the full texts of digital resources it is necessary to login to the digital catalog on the website in the section "Library → Online Library".

Online catalog

Login ⇩

In the "Фамилия" field, you must enter the full name in Russian. In the "Пароль" [Password] field, enter the barcode from your electronic pass (an 11-digit number without the first and last digits).

In the future, you can also access the digital catalog through your personal account (in the main page of the website).

2. External digital resources:
